HAVE A LOOK

AT OUR SILVER LEVER WATCH at Rs. 35 before buying, and you will give it the preference before any other.

The Watch as it is now, is the result of 20 years experience in this Indian watch trade, and we guarantee it to be the most perfect watch ever offered to the public for such a small outlay.

Being the manufacturers ourselves, the buyer obtains the watch from first hand. This explains its cheapness.

The Watches are of medium size in heavy engine turned silver cases, either hunting or half hunting. Guarantee 3 years.

To be obtained only direct from our firms at Bombay, Calcutta, and Secunderabad.

FAVRE LEUBA & CO.

SOUTH BRITISH FIRE A

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

TUESDAY EVENING, Nov. 17.

THE effect of the actual outbreak of hostilities in Eastern Europe is very apparent in the London Stock Exchange quotations of yesterday, received through Reuter this morning. Consols have declined ¼, and French Rentes ½ to 100¾ and 107¾ respectively. Bar Silver is again 1-16d per oz. lower at 47¾d., and Rupee Paper has declined ¼ in sympathy, while the 3½ per cent. Indian Sterling Loan has advanced ¼.

Wheat is reported firmer, No. 2 Club in London being advanced 6d. per quarter, but in Seeds and other articles of General Produce no change is reported.

The Liverpool Cotton market yesterday closed firm on the spot at unchanged prices, but better to arrive, Americans for future delivery showing an advance of 3-64d. in near, and 1-32d. in distant, positions. Surats, however, were dull, the sales being only 300 out of the 10,000 bales estimated for the day. A larger business cannot, however, be expected on the very small stock available. From New York prices come unaltered, and Reuter has not the usual daily figures showing the crop movements at the ports.

The market here to-day has been somewhat contradictory. On the strength of the Liverpool advices sellers began by asking an advance of Rs. 1 to Rs. 2 per candy; but finding buyers refuse to go on at that, they lowered their rates to the old level, and some business has actually been done slightly under yesterday's prices, Broach for March, we hear, having changed hands at Rs. 211. For Good Bengals this month Rs. 163 is about the quotation, and Fine has been done at Rs. 176.

WHEAT is a shade firmer. Buyers are now offering yesterday's current rates, but sellers hold out for a half-anna per cwt. advance, and this is the difference which checks business.

SEEDS are dull and quite unchanged.

PEARLS are steadier with a recovery in the Liverpool rates of 1s. 3d. to 2s. 6d. per ton. A steamer has been relet for Nov.-Dec. loading Hull at 21s. 3d., new scale, and 2,500 tons wheat for Glasgow has been done at 20s. Dec. loading, old scale. The Clan Cameron has booked about 3,000 tons Wheat at half 17s. 6d., half 18s. 9d., for Liverpool. Current market quotations are as follows :—

| | Ready. | Forward. |
|---|---|---|
| Liverpool | 17-6 to 18-9 | 18-9 to 20 |
| London | 17-6 to 19-3 | 17 6 to 20 |
| Open Charter | 21-3 to 22-6 | 22 6 to 23-6 |
| Havre | 22-6 | 22-6 to 25 |
| Dunkirk | 22-6 to 23-9 | 22-6 to 25 |
| Antwerp | 20 to 21-3 | 22-6 to 25 |
| Marseilles | 22 to 22-6 | |
| Trieste-Venice | 25 | 27-6 to 35 |

EXCHANGE.—The reduction of 1-16d. in Bar Silver quoted by Reuter has had no effect on the market here to-day, which if anything is the shade firmer, inasmuch as 3 months' credits for January delivery are reported to have been done at 1s. 6 13-32d., an advance of 1-32d. For ready bills, however, the position is in every way unaltered. Credits cannot be sold under 1s. 6¾d., and demand Bank Bills are not obtainable at better than 1s. 6 5-32d. We quote :—

| | per rupee |
|---|---|
| Bank Bills on demand | 1s. 6 5-32d. |
| Do. Telegraphic | 1s. 6¾d. |
| Do. Three months' sight. | 1s. 6 9-32d. |
| Credits | 1s. 6¾d. |
| Francs | 1'91. |

GOVERNMENT PAPER is very dull, the demand being quite at a standstill. Fours ready are down to Rs. 97, and for delivery at the end of the month to Rs. 96 13-16 to 7-8. Fours-and-a-half are nominal at Rs. 98½.

SHARES.—For Spinning and Weaving Mills the market is more depressed than ever, and our quotations show a further decline. Berar Manufacturing have dropped to Rs. 170, Dhurrumseys to Rs. 232½, Great Easterns to Rs. 920, Prince of Wales to Rs. 115, and Western India. Jewraz Balloo and Manockjee Petit are exceptions, being Rs. 2½ better at Rs. 1,070 and Rs. 1,170 respectively. Bombay Saw Mills have receded to Rs. 415. Bombay-Burmah Trading are rather better again at Rs. 3,750.

MENIST'S PERFECT PEBBLE SPECTACLES.

MESSRS. MARCKS and COMPANY, Ld., in re-organising the optician department of their business desire to bring into still greater prominence these universally popular, though highly priced, spectacles which their long experience enables them to recommend with confidence as being really what the name implies the most perfect spectacles that can be worn—Only the purest and hardest Brazillian pebble is used, and being cut on Dr. MENIST'S approved principle, parallel to the plane of the natural cleavage of the crystal, the lenses are entirely free from prismatic refraction while in the frames, of the very best materials and the most perfect finish, special modifications in form have been made, to meet the various defects of vision they are designed to correct, suggested by, and resulting from, his wide practical experience of the subject; and the extra cost will be found to be more than fully compensated by the satisfaction and benefit which will be derived from their use.

First class certificate and silver medal, the Highest Award for excellence.

TELEGRAMS.

THE WAR IN UPPER BURMAH.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

RANGOON, Nov. 17.

Four hundred men of the Somersetshire Regiment left this yesterday by special train for Tonghoo.

Simultaneously with the return of the French Consul to Mandalay, after it was understood that he had been recalled in disgrace, Colonel Sladen received a letter from the Mengoon Prince at Pondicherry, intimating his willingness to throw over the French, provided he were assisted to the throne of Burmah. This, like the Burmese Envoy at Paris telegraphing Theebaw's willingness to accept our terms, is thought to be a fresh diplomatic intrigue of the French to regain ascendency at Mandalay, which has been lost through the precipitate action of their Consul. The Italian Consul is acting strongly on our side.

SEVERE FIGHTING IN BULGARIA.

THE SERVIANS ADVANCING ON SOFIA.

THE PORTE AND PRINCE ALEXANDER.

BELGRADE, Nov. 16.

An engagement took place yesterday between the Servians and Bulgarians, which, after severe fighting, resulted in the Servians turning the Dragoman Pass and in the retreat of the Bulgarians on Slivnitza.

The Servian troops are continuing their advance on Sofia.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 16.

The Porte in reply to Prince Alexander has refused to comply with his request for assistance in repelling the Servian invasion of Bulgaria, declaring that his violation of the Treaty of Berlin has encouraged the Servians in their course of action.

THE AFGHAN BOUNDARY.

TEHERAN, Nov. 16.

The British and Russian Commissioners for the delimitation of the Afghan frontier met at Zulficar on the 12th inst. The first boundary pillar has already been placed at a distance of one mile and a half to the north of the mouth of the Zulficar Pass.

THE CAROLINES QUESTION.

ROME, Nov. 16.

The Pope has issued his decision in the dispute between Germany and Spain regarding the sovereignty of the Caroline Islands. His Holiness advises Germany to recognise the claims of Spain to sovereignty over the Carolines and to accept the commercial concessions offered by Spain, granting facilities for the formation of German coaling stations there, &c.

THE VICEROY ON TOUR.

PIGSTICKING AT JODHPORE.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

CAMP JODHPORE, Nov. 16.

This morning the whole of the Viceregal party drove seven miles out to a pigsticking ground, where the Countess mounted an elephant, and the Maharaja, with Colonel Powlett, the Resident, mounted another. The Viceroy, Maharaja Pertab Sing, Maharaja Kishore Sing, Lord William Beresford, and others then mounted horses; and the drive commenced by the whole party galloping six deep for a mile until out of sight of the elephants. All of a sudden all were seen coming along at a breakneck pace, a boar leading. There was such a cloud of dust that it was not certain who had the chance of first spear; but when the group burst into the open within about three hundred paces from the elephants, the leader was the Viceroy, on Victoria Cross, one of the best Arab pigstickers in India. He came the boar, with Victoria Cross very often at his heels, and more often over him, and Lord Dufferin now and then giving sundry prods, only eliciting grunts and one or two charges. On they came, and when only about four paces from the elephants, the Viceroy seemed to gather himself up, and delivered his spear with such power that the tusker was spread out dead. Great exultation followed, the Viceroy exclaiming that it was his first pig, and that pigsticking was a far preferable sport to foxhunting.

Owing to the late return of the party to-day, the official programme was cancelled. The Countess visited the Maharani in the afternoon, while the Viceroy inspected the fortress.

To-night a billiard match came off between Mr. Stanley and Mr. Lazarus, an optician of Calcutta. The Viceroy and the Maharaja were present. The match was 1,000 up, Mr. Stanley conceding 400 points. He was in splendid form, and it was a matter of general regret that he had not a more skilful opponent.

THE VICEROY AT THE DALY HALL.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

VICEROY'S CAMP JODHPORE, Nov. 17.

The following is the official report of the Viceroy's speech at the opening of the Daly Hall of the Rajkumar College, at Indore, the other day:—Ladies, Princes, Chiefs and gentlemen—I assure you that it gives me the greatest pleasure to have been permitted to assist at this most interesting ceremony. The cause of education has in me a sincere and earnest friend, and I cannot tell you what pleasure I experienced when on entering yonder building I found displayed upon a marble tablet which I trust will endure for many generations the names of no less than thirty Chiefs of Central India who have contributed to raise this useful building. As I have so recently had an opportunity of expressing my sentiments in regard to similar institution, it would be out of place were I to repeat what I said upon that occasion. I will therefore simply content myself with assuring all those interested in the future prosperity of this University that I shall always be ready and anxious to promote its interestsand extend the sphere of its usefulness. As Sir Lepel Griffin has already observed, it has been my good fortune to come in contact with several former pupils of this college, and I have been much pleased by the readiness with which these have addressed me in English. In conclusion, however, there is one remark which I should like to make—that is that all Englishmen must be very grateful for the generous thought which induced the princes and Chiefs of Central India who subscribed to this institution to name it after their own friend, Sir Henry Daly. I am well aware that Sir Henry Daly was one of the most accomplished and high-minded public servants of the Crown that ever pursued a career of usefulness in India. He was from first to last the champion and friend of the native Princes and the native States; and I assure you it is very gratifying to us, whose aim and desire it is to follow in the footsteps of those who have been most distinguished by their humble endeavours to do their duty towards the people of India, to have such a proof that we are serving a nation generous enough to preserve after our departure such an enduring record of their name and fame as that which you have erected in honor of Sir Henry Daly.

Replying to the address from the Central India Association presented at Indore on the 14th inst., the Viceroy said:—Gentlemen—I beg to return my most cordial thanks for your address; and believe me I fully appreciate the considerate manner in which you have touched on the various topics to which it refers. It is indeed a great pleasure, as well as a great advantage, to have the opportunity of becoming personally acquainted with Princes, Chiefs, representative bodies like yourselves, and those other influential personages in India on whose good will, co-operation, and friendly assistance the Government are necessarily dependent for the proper administration of the affairs of this great Empire. The first duty of the Viceroy is to learn that it is much better that he should act slowly and deliberately with a knowledge than embark upon experimental lines of policy on the strength of imperfect information. The population of India are so diverse, its interests so complex, and the traditional customs of the people in various localities are so multifarious that except in respect of certain large and great questions an absolutely uniform regime is scarcely suitable. It is for this reason that the introduction of municipal government wherever the circumstances of a district render it possible cannot fail to prove a most important advantage both to the Government and the people at large. It introduces into our administration a system of certain element of flexibility and adaptive power which will conveniently mitigate the tendency inherent in all imperial Governments to too rigid a generalization. As you justly observe, I have no more earnest wish than that the various public-spirited bodies whose members are ready to sacrifice both their time and private convenience to the public interests of their several neighbourhoods may continue to merit both the approval and gratitude of the central authorities. Turning now to the kind allusion you have made—the humble efforts of Lady Dufferin to contribute as far as lies in her power to the general welfare of the community—I can assure you both in her name and my own, that nothing has touched us more than to observe the generous and large-hearted manner in which Her Excellency's proposals have been welcomed both by he Princes and people of India. Not only have contributions from the highest to the lowest in the land flowed in a broad stream of liberality, but what is even more valuable and encouraging, Her Excellency has received from all directions and all classes the most encouraging proofs of their sympathy and approval. It is now self-evident that she has addressed herself to the remedy of an evil which is universally recognised, and for the supply of a want which is everywhere felt. Her one idea in this matter has been the material mitigation of human suffering. Her scheme stands upon this single basis, and is quite disconnected from any subsidiary purpose, and all extraneous influences whether political, social, or religious. Its success is already fully assured, and has acquitted a national character which I trust its various supporters in all parts of India will be careful to maintain.

THE VICEROY AND THE CENTRAL INDIA ASSOCIATION.

(FROM THE HON. SEC., CENTRAL INDIA ASSOCIATION.)

MHOW, Nov. 17.

The telegram to the Times of India of Monday regarding the presentation of an address to the Viceroy by the Central India Association is incorrect and misleading. The Association was never anxious to have a draft address published. An address was actually presented, and the Viceroy's speech in reply was excellent. The deputation consisted of ten members, representing all classes; and the Viceroy shook hands with each after the presentation of the address.

THE SOUTHERN INDIA RIFLE MEETING.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

BANGALORE, Nov. 17.

The volley-firing match for native troops was won by the 14th Madras Infantry with 82 points. Four teams only competed. The 23rd Bombay and the 16th Madras teams were disqualified for firing before the word of command.

THE next meeting of the Town Council will be held on Friday instead of to-day.

THE Faculty of Arts of the Bombay University will meet to-morrow to consider a proposal made by Dr. Henry Cook, on behalf of the staff of the Grant Medical College, to raise the standard of admission to the examination by the University for the degree of Licentiate of Medicine and Surgery from that of the Matriculation Examination to that of the Previous Examination. The Middle-class Examination scheme will also come before the Faculty.

SERVIA is already gaining successes over Bulgaria. It could hardly have been otherwise, Servia being able to put on the field nearly twice as many troops as her neighbour. The standing army of Servia consists of 7,000 men with 804 battalions and 300 guns, but on a war footing it can be increased to 150,000 men. Bulgaria, on the other hand, has a regular army of 80,000 men on the war footing, and in time of peace 24 battalions with 80 guns. Moreover, Bulgaria is placed at a disadvantage by the fact that when the union with Eastern Roumelia was proclaimed, all the Russian officers in the Bulgarian Army gave up their commissions.

WE are glad to learn that the local Government have made a grant of Rs. 300 per month to the Executive Committee of the Bombay Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and asked them to appoint their own veterinary surgeon to conduct the Bai Sakarbai Dinshaw Petit Hospital for Animals until such time as the new Veterinary College may be established and a superintendent and assistant superintendent are appointed thereto by Government, when the contribution will cease. With this arrangement, the hospital will be in working order from the 1st prox.

COLONEL UPPERTON, C.B., of the 8th Bengal Cavalry, has been put on special duty to look after the foreign officers coming to the Camp of Exercise. He will leave Bombay by the next mail-steamer for Suez, to meet his charges there about the 2nd proximo, and hopes to land them at Delhi about the 20th or, it might be, a day or two earlier.

THE Nizam's decree of perpetual banishment against Ali Abdulla, for his share in the Nevill conspiracy, has, it is said, been held in suspense, during the Hyderabad races. The Pioneer remarks that "there is something more than generosity in this remission. For Ali Abdulla manages a racing stable; and while a week or two, more or less, cannot matter to justice, it would be truly deplorable if the interests of the turf were to suffer."

THE press throughout the country is unanimous in praising the wisdom of the declaration in General Prendergast's proclamation that Theebaw will never rule again at Mandalay, thus showing the people that the war is not made against them, but against their King. The Allahabad paper remarks:—"We may be sure at least that this declaration will not fail of its effects in Mandalay; it is highly probable that even before this a party among the ministers there will have been intriguing with the idea to secure their own position at the expense of their tottering King, and when he is thus plainly singled out as the object of British hostility, what was probable before becomes inevitable. Anyone who is at all conversant with Mandalay politics will be prepared at any moment to hear that Theebaw has been made captive or put to death by his own adherents."

WHILE admitting that circumstances have rendered it necessary to depose Theebaw, the Statesman strongly protests against annexing his country. "The people of Burmah," it says, "have given us no offence, and we have no right to deprive them of their national independence, and to impose foreign rule upon them, simply to provide a host of new and highly-paid appointments for Englishmen in the country. The apparent insanity of the Prince and his determined hostility may make it necessary to depose him, and to place some other person, acceptable to the nobles and people, upon the throne; but not one foot of territory should be demanded, except for the adjustment of boundaries that are found to be inconvenient for administrative purposes. It seems unfortunately to be taken for granted in England that the country is to be annexed, and it is the latent fear of this being done that underlies, we suspect, the distrust and dislike with which our native contemporaries view the Expedition."

A CONTRIBUTION of Rs. 5,000 towards the Punjab Chiefs' School has been paid into the treasury of the Punjab Government by H. H. the Raja of Faridkote. Donations to the amount of Rs. 59,000, for the same purpose, have been promised by their Highnesses the Maharaja of Patiala and the Raja of Kapurthala.

DR. R. POLDEN, Medical Officer, Punjab Northern State Railway, has sent to the Lahore paper a shocking story of "juvenile depravity." He writes:—"A patent toy for infants are now very extensively used in India, I think the following case, illustrating their danger, should be known to all anxious mothers. A lady who has for some time back fed her baby on Mellin's food ran out of her supply during a railway journey. As baby must be fed, the khansamah was sent to get a bottle of the food. As is only natural, he went into the bazaar and got quite a patriarchal bottle, no doubt for a few pice. The rusty appearance of this preparation did suggest doubts to the mother's mind; but, as I said before, baby must be fed. Accordingly baby was fed, just a light afternoon tea; and the mother was surprised that baby was so merry after her repast. Next morning baby took a very hearty breakfast of the food at about 11 o'clock, and immediately afterwards became so drowsy that the mother sent for me. When I arrived, the poor little infant was the most perfect example of juvenile depravity I ever witnessed—in fact, it was distinctly drunk, and only too dangerously ill to be disorderly. Having made inquiries I came to the conclusion that fermentation of the food had occurred, and I treated the child accordingly. I am happy to say that the baby is now all right, except that she gets up in the morning with a 'hot coppery' taste in the mouth, and something of a 'head.' The suspected bottle and contents were sent to the Chemical Examiner to the Punjab for analysis, and he reported that alcohol was found in the contents of the bottle."

THE N.-W. P. and Oudh branch of the Countess of Dufferin's Fund is prepared to give scholarships of Rs. 10 a month to female pupils who are willing to be admitted into the Agra Medical School. The candidates for admission must have a good knowledge of Urdu or Hindi, and of arithmetic as far as the rule of three. Instruction in medical subjects will be given gratuitously by Government. A boarding-house in charge of a matron and assistant matron is provided at Agra for the accommodation of female pupils from a distance. Pupils residing in the boarding-house are taken to and from the school twice a day in covered conveyances. The working committee of this branch have been asked (and the municipalities will also be asked) to find in their divisions girls from school or otherwise for the Agra College. A nursing institution is being formed at Lucknow, but for this educational qualification is not required in all cases.

SHWAY OH, the Burmese Ambassador in Paris, who proposed that the difficulty with Theebaw should be submitted to arbitration, was formerly a cadet at Woolwich, and has therefore a very wholesome idea of England's military strength.

SOME interesting facts regarding the Chinese belief in possession by evil spirits are brought to light in a report by Dr. Dudgeon, medical missionary at Pekin. He writes:—

"The Chinese believe in possession by evil or depraved spirits, which may inhabit the individual disguised as foxes, hedgehogs, weasels, or snakes. In the country there are small houses everywhere for the worship of these animals. The culprits belonging to them are black, grey, yellow, and white, respectively. There is a system in China possessed of various methods by which spirits can be made to come and speak through pieces of wood, such as planchette, spirit-rapping, table-turning, as in the West, and there are also methods employed of being dispossessed of them, such as chanting prayers, writing charms, with the character for demon forming an invisible part of them, burning these and drinking the infusion of the ashes in water or tea. They also burn incense and prostrate themselves, all with the design, apparently, of appeasing the spirits. The spirits afflicted seem to be in ordinary health, and the cursory observer would not distinguish persons so possessed, but on close inspections, something odd and queer, especially about their eyes and speech, can be detected. They are called spirits or gentlemen, and are most frequently associated with the worship of the Taoist God of Medicine, Lü Tsu. The possessed are the creatures of their circumstances. They seem to be beyond their own powers of will. What they do is done unwillingly; they feel compelled to act in the way they do. Diseases are said to be frequently caused by evil spirits. The mysterious tail-cutting mania which was universal in China a few years ago was connected with this belief. The worship of the fox has been particularly prominent at Peking of late years, and so great were the crowds of people that flocked to its shrine, soliciting the cure of all manner of diseases, that the officials have lately had to order its removal to a temple.

A NUMBER of men who are suspected of having been concerned in the piratical attack on the British steamer Greyhound near Hongkong have been arrested in Macao. A quantity of the stolen property has been found in their possession. In the meantime, it is uncertain whether these men will be tried in Macao, by Portuguese law, or handed over to the Hongkong authorities. Capital punishment is not allowed under the Portuguese code.

EVEN pirates have some regard for the eternal fitness of things. It appears that among the passengers on board the Greyhound, when she was attacked by pirates, was Mgr. Foucard, who, after a stay of fifteen months in Hongkong, on account of the war, was going back to his Mission in Quang-si, accompanied by one of his missionaries. The pirates took all the Bishop's money, but left to his lordship the pectoral cross and the ring.

JAPAN is making rapid progress. Great popularity, we are told, is being achieved by the foreign method of dressing ladies' hair. In Kyôtô the fairer portion of the population is usually strongly attached to old fashions, but the great comfort and convenience of the Western style has conquered prejudice, and number of ladies are adopting the new mode. A "tonsorial artist" is now learning how to dress hair in the foreign style from the wife of an Englishman at present visiting Kyôtô, and another knight of the scissors and razor strop advertises that he knows the secret already.

THE "soldier's heart" suffers from overdrill. Says Mr. Labouchere:—I came across a pamphlet the other day, entitled "The Breakdown of Young Soldiers explained," by Surgeon-Major F. A. Davey, M.D., in which the author attributes much of the desertion as well as of the heart and lung disease in the army to a wrong system of training the recruit. The number of soldiers invalided for these two causes is, it seems, out of all proportion to similar cases amongst civilians. The present drill, with its unnatural positions, causes at first discomfort and exhaustion, eventually affecting the heart or lungs. The evil is of slow growth, but day by day the men are taught to breathe insufficiently in order to keep their chests unduly dilated, and so the action of the heart is gradually weakened, and by sympathy, the lungs are also affected. The gymnastic course, too, in itself becomes harmful in connection with the distressing daily drill. The simple remedy is to abolish the unnatural and useless drills and make the soldier by giving him the sort of work he will have to undergo on active service. The Brigade of Guards, who approach most nearly to the ideal wooden soldier, suffer most from heart and lung diseases, and they also follow out most closely the drill regulations. I remember a few years ago watching a particularly smart young sergeant of the Coldstreams drilling a squad of recruits. His own well-set-up figure, and the strict way in which he made his men hold themselves, must have been a treat to a soldier's eye. Apparently he was the very picture of rude health, being broad-chested and deep-voiced. Feeling interested in him I conversed with him after the drill, and on various subsequent occasions. Judge of my surprise when, a short time ago, I was addressed by a weak-voiced, broken-down man, who turned out to be my friend the smart sergeant, lately discharged as suffering from "soldier's heart."

MILITARY NEWS.

IN consequence of some of the regiments of the Burmah Expeditionary Force having to be split up into small detachments, the Principal Medical Officer of the Force has telegraphed to Madras for further medical aid. To comply with this requisition the Surgeon-General H. M.'s Forces has directed the following medical officers and subordinates to proceed to Burmah by the first opportunity:—Surgeons D. Elcum and K. C. Sanjana, Apothecaries J. L. Laffrey and W. G. McFarland, and Assistant Apothecary T. Gooroosawmy Pillay, and Hospital Assistants Syed Ali, C. Francis, and S. Jesudasen. Assistant Apothecary E. J. Theobalds, of the Fort Dispensary, Madras, who proceeded in charge of details, has been detained in Burmah to take charge of a force moving from Tounghoo to the frontier. Surgeon E. P. Youngerman and Hospital Assistants C. Cundasawmy and V. Mathuriah Naidu have been ordered to accompany the squadron of the 2nd Regiment L. C. ordered to be despatched to Burmah as soon as possible.

ANGLO-INDIAN INTERESTS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

SIR,—Will you allow me, through your columns, to say a word of warning to the leaders of the Anglo-Indian community; and (with reference to recent "incidents" of sorts) to ask them, in all seriousness, whether they consider that their interests are advanced by the tone and tactics employed by some of their organs in the press towards the native public? Some of these newspapers seem to make it their special business to cultivate the hostility of the Indian public. Be the occasion great or small, they seize every opportunity to say something irritating; discrediting the efforts of those who are the leaders of native opinion, misrepresenting their motives, and ridiculing their aspirations. Now, I would ask, What is there to be gained by such a line of conduct? Does any reasonable person suppose that life in India would be more pleasant or more profitable for us Europeans if these tactics were successful, and if a genuine race antipathy were to be aroused among the Indian population?—if a feeling were to be generated among them even faintly resembling that which existed or exists in other parts of the world towards the dominant classes somewhat similarly situated? I say nothing about such conduct being unchristian. What strikes one is its unspeakable folly. Here we are, a small minority among a vast alien population, living in complete peace and security (more safely indeed than in our own country), with doors open and windows unbarred, and treated everywhere with respect and kindness. Nay more; custom unsanctioned by Acts of Parliament or the Queen's Proclamation, gives us a sort of elder brother's privilege, so that we enjoy precedence not only in social and private but also in public matters, taking the cream of whatever is worth having, whether official, professional, or commercial. This condition of things is evidently very advantageous for us. And I would ask, Who are the people who are trying to upset it? Is it local Indian patriots? Not at all. The attempts at disturbance, the provocations tending to produce race exasperation and to render our position untenable, come entirely from the side of the Europeans, or at least from the "organs" that profess to represent their interests! Surely among the leaders of the European community there are enough soberminded men who can see the significance of these facts, and who will take steps to abate this nuisance of needless and mischievous irritation. The Indian elephant is a patient and sagacious animal, but as long as we are riding on his back I for one should prefer that no tricks should be played with him, and I should certainly be inclined to make short work of any mischievous urchin who carried him with squibs or tied crackers to his tail.

Also the Anglo-Indian cause is badly served by those journalists who make it their practice to single out individual Englishmen and, as in the case of Lord Ripon, to worry them with insults because they are friends of the natives. Anglo-Indians should bear in mind that they are already out of favour with the general public in England. As a class they are not of great account at home, either socially or politically. And they cannot therefore afford to raise up to themselves powerful enemies. Lord Ripon is of course far too magnanimous to remember, as against a class, the Shimei-like revilings with which he was pursued. But if the Liberals come into power he will probably be the next Secretary of State for India. And it is manifestly disadvantageous to the cause of Anglo-Indians that the autocrat of Westminster should be impressed with the belief that they prefer their own selfish interests to the general good, and that in public affairs they cannot be trusted to be rational in criticism or fair to their opponents.

The real interest of Englishmen in India lies in quite a different direction. They must cultivate the friendship, instead of the hostility, of the new Indian public opinion which is now developing itself with such surprising power and solidarity. If they goad native feeling into active antagonism, they will bring about an organised appeal to the new democracy against all the privileges which Europeans now enjoy, and we know pretty well what the result of such an appeal would be.

But such a collision need not take place. For India's opinion is wonderfully tolerant of existing conditions. And we may, with advantage to all parties, maintain our present position in many important respects, provided we show the leaders of native thought that the presence of Europeans among them is not a stumbling-block, but a real help to them in all their best aspirations. There exists at present no unwillingness to concede to us the elder brother's privilege of leadership; but we must use it worthily. And this duty we may perform by cordially supporting the new educated generation who are striving to lead their fellow-countrymen in the paths of constitutional progress and reform; welcoming such efforts as the highest token of their sympathy and a great historical triumph for our national institutions. Noblesse oblige. And if Englishmen in India desire to appear before the world as worthy types of their nation they must cast aside this mean and pitiful spirit of detraction. To use the words of Lord Dufferin on a recent occasion, they must clothe themselves in those manly virtues and characteristics which in all ages have been recognised as the proper adornament of the well-born, such as self-restraint, consideration for others, readiness to sympathise with the weak and suffering and the oppressed, and above all, with that noble generosity which is the outcome of an innate simplicity and generosity of spirit, which instinctively shrinks in scorn and disgust from anything approaching egotistical vanity and vulgar self-assertion.

THEEBAW'S PROCLAMATION.

THE following is the full text of Theebaw's proclamation:—"To all town and village Thuggyis, heads of cavalry, heads of the Daings, shield-bearers, heads of jails, heads of gold and silver avenues, mine-workers, settlement officers, heads of forests, and to all loyal subjects and inhabitants of the royal empire,—Those heretics, the English kullahs (barbarians) having most harshly made demands calculated to bring about the impairment and destruction of our religion, the violation of our national traditions and customs, and the degradation of our race, are making a show and preparation, as if about to wage war with our State. They have been replied to in conformity with usages of great nations, and in words which are just and regular. If, notwithstanding, these heretic kullahs should come and in any way attempt to molest or disturb the State, His Majesty, who is watchful that the interests of our religion and our State shall not suffer, will himself march forth with his generals, captains and lieutenants, with large forces of infantry, artillery, elephanteric, and cavalry, by land and by water, and with the might of his army will efface these heretics (kullahs) and conquer and annex their country. All loyal subjects, the people of the country, are enjoined that they are not to be alarmed or disturbed on account of the Burmese powerful enemies. THE SEAT OF WAR IN BURMAH.

THE BOMBAY POLICE.

THE following Resolution has been issued by the Government of Bombay, in the Judicial Department:—

RESOLUTION.—The Commissioner of Police, Bombay, has submitted for the year 1884 his first report on the working of the Police in the Town and Island of Bombay, the information hitherto furnished to Government on this subject having been submitted by the Chief Presidency Magistrate.

2. As this is the first report on the present lines the working of the Police during the past and during previous years cannot be exactly compared, but from the Chief Presidency Magistrate's Report of the 20th April, 1885, reviewed by Government in their Resolution No. 4117 of the 15th June 1885, it appears that there has been an appreciable decrease in crime during 1884 as compared with 1883.

3. During the year under review 3,642 cognizable offences against the Penal Code were reported to the Police and 1,771 of these cases or 48·62 per cent. ended in conviction. 2,646 persons were arrested in connection with these offences and 1,915 or 72·37 per cent. of those arrested were convicted.

By far the greater portion of these 3,642 offences consisted of ordinary thefts of which no less than 2,754 occurred during the year.

4. Five murders took place in Bombay during the year under review, four of which were detected and prosecuted to conviction. The fifth, a case of infanticide, was not detected.

5. One culpable homicide, 3 cases of administering stupefying drugs, 25 cases of hurt by dangerous weapons, 3 cases of robbery, 13 cases relating to coin and 365 cases of criminal breach of trust occurred during the year. The details respecting other classes of crime do not call for any special remark. Of the only 128 cases of dishonestly receiving stolen property were investigated under the Penal Code, no less than 416 cases of a similar description were investigated under Section 35 of Act X III. of 1865.

6. The value of property stolen during 1884 amounted to Rs. 1,70,001, of which property worth Rs. 86,916 was recovered. This gives 51·12 as the percentage of recoveries—a fairly satisfactory figure.

7. Besides offences against the Penal Code 13,238 offences against miscellaneous laws were reported. Of these 9,112 were offences against the Police Acts and 3,152 were offences against the Public Conveyance Act. There were also—46 cases under the Excise Law, 17 cases under the Opium Act, 4 cases under the Salt and Customs Laws, 9 cases under the Arms Act, 4 c

last six or eight months, and their health has been most extraordinarily good. As to the tsetse-fly, if it does exist there it does not do any harm, because the cattle are all over the country, and we know that the harm of the tsetse-fly is in the injury it does to cattle. There is one further point I would wish to mention. It has been stated that I wish to put Englishmen only into the country. I wish to point out that that is not my opinion—that that is the desire of the natives who offered to give up their country. Surely, when native chiefs offer a country on certain conditions we must consider those conditions to some extent. It was not my view but the view of the natives, who said "The filibusters have ever been trying to come into our country, and we wish to keep them out." Is it within the bounds of reason for us to suppose that they wish to put in filibusters whom they say they wish to keep out? They want men in whom they can place trust. As to that very point, I think if you look into past records you will find in the last four or five years that it has been proposed even by Ministers of the Cape Colony to put Englishmen into a large part of the country. There have been other proposals of a similar kind. We know that the eastern province was colonized by a large body of English persons, and it is the eastern province at the present time which is so go-ahead. One other point I would like to mention. The native chiefs earnestly begged, and the natives earnestly begged, that we should not let intoxicating drinks into their country. ("Hear, hear," and cheers.) They said, "Some of the old people like its but we know that if we have those intoxicating drinks brought into our country the natives will die off." In spite of that, are we to declare a Protectorate over the country and let in those drinks to destroy the natives? It is absolutely necessary for the commerce of the country that we keep intoxicating spirits out. ("Hear, hear," and cheers.) In the first place, the people will not work in the same way; and, in the second place, if they spend their money in drink they will not have it for other things, and then I am sure if they spend their money in intoxicating spirits they will lose their land. When I was arranging the land of Griqualand West I had to give farms to certain Griquas who had the right to them, but I also had to make arrangements that when they sold their farms there should be locations reserved for them. That gave rise to a good deal of discussion, but I said as soon as we give this land they will sell it, and we must make these reserves. We knew it was certain that they would sell their farms. We have now in Bechuanaland the power to keep out this intoxicating drink, and for the benefit and the commercial prospects of Bechuanaland every effort should be made to keep it out of the country. (Cheers.) I have one more point to say as to this matter, and that is that I have had about 3,000 applications for farms from people in South Africa, from Dutch people and English people alike. There are a large number of Dutch people in the southern part of the colony, who are in every way as good colonists as the English people there, and these people have sent in applications for farms. Is it within the bounds of reason that those people should wish to leave their farms and come up to Bechuanaland if it is a waste desert, as it has been said to be? (Cheers.)

PIANOFORTES.
READ EXTRACTS FROM TESTIMONIALS.

DURABILITY:—"I the last Piano I bought from you I took up to Mount Abu with me, and notwithstanding it had travelled 4 0 miles by rail previously, it arrived after 16 miles in bullock cart, at the top of a Hill, in excellent Tune. On my return to Ahmedabad the Piano accompanied me, and has as yet not required tuning. The facts speak for themselves. 500 miles by rail and 30 odd in a bullock cart, and the instrument in perfect order at the end of it."

"During the last 8 months it has had two long journeys—one from Bombay to Jacobabad, and the other from that place here (Deesa) * * * Notwithstanding the Piano is in excellent order."

"Standing the test of this trying climate most wonderfully."

"The more it is used the richer and softer it is."

TONE:—"Its tone is much admired, and we are thoroughly satisfied."

"It has always kept its brilliancy and sweetness of tone."

"Beautiful Tone." "A very good and sweet tone." "Full and rich in tone." "Brilliant in tone." "The Piano you sold me 18 months ago has both improved in tone and touch." "Sweet and brilliant in tone."

TOUCH:—"Charmingly flexible." "Soft, pleasant, and easy to the touch." "Has a flexible Touch." "The touch is so excellent that one does not tire playing."

TUNE-KEEPING:—"After 8 months of continual hammering by my many bachelor friends and myself, the Piano is in splendid order; but if your tuner comes up this side soon, I should like him to tune it to prevent my being non plussed for a tuner by accident."

"Piano travelled about with me in the District of Kattiawar for some years, during which time it was not even once tuned."

"My Piano has been in constant use for 19 months, and has never been tuned. It is a wonderful instrument."

ACTION:—"I do not recognise any jingling when the pedal is made use of." "I have never found out their Action fail." "Good repeating Action." "No metallic jingling."

STANDS THE CLIMATE OF INDIA:—Notwithstanding the instrument having stood in a room which is open and exposed to the breeze all day and all night, its brilliancy of tone is perfect, and is in every respect as good as the day we bought it. "Wood has never warped." "The frame is perfect."

WORKMANSHIP:—"Speaks well for the workmanship and material, for it has travelled on the journey from Bombay here over 1,000 miles by rail and seventy-five by native bullock train."

OPINIONS:—"It is, I believe, a generally acknowledged fact that they are the best Pianos for this country." "The Schiedmayer and Soehne's Piano gives me every satisfaction. I could not get a better instrument." "A. I. Piano for the Country." "Always my favourite."

GANDY'S AMERICAN COTTON BELTING

TO those having the use and care of machinery it is of the greatest importance to know what is the best belting to use to transmit power. To such and to all the answer is, USE THE GANDY BELT.

It has imitators, and this is the strongest proof possible, that is an article that is worth spending cash on to imitate. If it were a worthless article, or one that had not been VERY SUCCESSFUL, no one would go to the expense and trouble to imitate it. Imitation is the strongest form of flattery, and those who imitate the "GANDY" belt are proclaiming to al belt users, that the GANDY belt is the best that has ever been put before the public.

The GANDY belt has acquired such a deservedly high reputation, that belt users, after having tried all others, come back to Gandy and declare that, notwithstanding the difference in price, they find it to their advantage to use the American Cotton Belt made, only by the inventor and patentee
